

SCRIPTURE SLEUTH
VOLUME ONE · SAMPLER

THE HIDDEN WORD

A CASEBOOK OF THE ARCHIVES

Three sealed leaves from the Archives — one of each watch — so you can feel the paper before you buy the volume.

It was who, in where, speaking of what.

HOW THE CASE IS PLAYED

THE HIDDEN WORD

Each leaf is a closed file from the Archives. A verse is sealed. Some of the words have already unsealed — more on a Lantern Watch, fewer on an Ember Vigil. The reference is withheld. Your work is the old game of Clue, turned toward encouragement.

It was Paul the Apostle, in a prison, speaking of strength.

Who is speaking? Where is this taking place? What lesson is on the table? Use the green felt board to strike names as you think, then check one box in each column and write the sentence. A wrong theory does not lock you out. The answer sheets sit under wax at the back. After them, a night-watch section holds the mini devotion for each file — a reflection and a walk. Those pages name the verse. Do not open them while a case is still on the table.

FIRST LIGHT

LANTERN WATCH

Most of the verse is already burning. Three words in four stand in the open.

20 cases · 75% unsealed

HALF-LIGHT

CANDLE INQUIRY

You work by a smaller flame. Half the words remain under the seal.

20 cases · 50% unsealed

NIGHT WATCH

EMBER VIGIL

Only a glow remains. One word in four is given; the rest you must name.

10 cases · 25% unsealed

Case No. 001

THE FRAGMENT

I can do all things through Christ which _____.

75% of the words unsealed. The reference stays hidden until you close the case — or break the seal at the back of the book.

THE REST IS SEALED

FORTY-SEVEN FILES REMAIN

Volume One binds all fifty cases, the felt board on every leaf, the answer sheets under wax, and a night-watch section of mini devotions — sealed after the key, so they cannot spoil an open file. Purchase it from The Press on Scripture Sleuth. After the receipt, the unsealing phrase is LANTERN-CANDLE-EMBER.
